The volumes are many and there and the fair will no doubt be a splendid success. See THE HERALD's special advertisement for the fair of the kind offered in the whole book.

Some young men say that they can not keep up premiums on a life insurance policy, when they know that the cost of $1000 a young man in less than 50 cents per year. Where in the young man who does not on an average save more than this from the life he gets absolutely no return? Insure now. G. B. LERNA, Agent.

Attorney J. B. Yunker met with a painful accident Sunday by having his arm dislocated in attempting to remove some from over the back of a chair. This is the first time he has met with a similar accident. Chloroform was administered, the bone was set in position and he is getting along as well as could be expected.

Mr. Vergon died at his residence in Central City last Monday morning from the effects of a coronary chill. He was formerly Mr. M. J. Harper, well known to our citizens, having resided here several years as the sister of the Thomas brothers of this place. His remains were brought to Hartford yesterday and interred in Oakwood cemetery. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. G. J. Haise.

Next Friday night the Ohio County Central Democratic Club will meet at the court house and a program which will be interesting and instructive has been arranged. Hon. E. D. Walker and Dr. B. Yunker will speak on the issues confronting the people in the present campaign. The club desires to receive all citizens who are interested in the election of Hon. W. J. Bryan, to be present. Let us have a good attendance.

There is much complaint about tobacco farms in this county and the crop is in a distressing condition. The women have literally taken out the seed of many fine fields of wheat. Some farmers, after spending from $100 to $200 on the seed, have been compelled to discard their farm hands and give their crops up to the worms. It is a very discouraging and depressing situation of affairs as regards this valuable weed has existed for years.

If reports be true the second money meeting held at Louisville last night, Hartford county was a whopping one. Only Belmont was a whopping one. Belmont was a whopping one. Belmont was a whopping one. Belmont was a whopping one.

Mr. Henry Austin, of Beaver Dam, and Miss Lillian O'Leary, of Prentiss, were married last night at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Herring, of this place. The wedding was private, there being only a few of the intimate friends and relatives present. Rev. G. J. Haise performed the ceremony, which was declared by the bride and groom left for their residence in Beaver Dam. The bride extended a cordial invitation to all to meet at her residence on their wedding day.

Rev. James A. Chandler will leave today for Elkhart, Ky., to resume his studies in the Vanderbilt Training School. Mr. Chandler has been spending his summer vacation in Hartford, the guest of his father, Mr. James A. Chandler. He is a young man of about 25 years of age, and is a member of the Methodist church. He is a thorough, practical young man, of high talent and ability, and is well known in this community.

We have purchased the corner lot opposite the residence of Mr. Henry Griffin, in front of the court house on Market street, and will shortly commence the erection of a printing office thereon, which will be the permanent home of THE HERALD. The building will be put up expressly for a printing and publishing house and will be supplied with every convenience necessary in the business. Plans and specifications are now in the hands of the contractor and work will commence in a few days upon what is intended to be one of the most complete printing establishments in Western Kentucky.

Rev. J. B. Chandler preached a very interesting and instructive sermon at the Methodist church Sunday morning at 11 a. m. and at 8 p. m. at the same place there was held a jubilee meeting in the interest of the war-aid and disabled soldiers of the Louisville Conference and their families. A fair sized audience was present at both services. The singing was very good and well received. At the close of the service a collection was taken up which was quite satisfactory considering the size of the audience. May the good work go on.

Some insurance companies are sending out "free" college of offer their policies will necessarily be paid in 50 cent dollars and some representative of the insurance companies will be sent to take the policies. I represent a company that will pay the face of the policy in 100 cent dollars "free silver" or "free gold." Our company can insure life to insurance and has no time to be telling the people how to vote. It proposes to fulfill its contract to the letter and as the records show, it has never failed in a single case with a contested claim on its books. Take a policy in the Prudential. G. B. LERNA, Agent.

The suit of Cynthia A. Blackwell, W. B. Falkner, L. D. Falkner, W. B. Falkner, William Skags and the Hefner Bros. & Planning Mill Co., which had been in the hands of the court for the 11th inst., was concluded and submitted yesterday morning about 11 o'clock, and the jury after five hours' deliberation returned a verdict for the defendants. There being $1,000 in controversy, this has been a body of law, from start to finish, by Judge L. P. Little for the plaintiff and E. Edwin Brown and B. D. Biege for the defendants. Grounds for new trial were prepared and filed yesterday at the court. There were 70 witnesses in all, whose claims together with the clerk and sheriff's fee amount to about $800.

Herald Readers, Notice!

Inasmuch as we will soon commence the erection of a new building, which will be the permanent home of THE HERALD, we need all that is due us on subscriptions to THE HERALD to pay for same. We have been very lenient with our subscribers and trust they appreciate our kindness in bearing with them. We start to building, trusting our subscribers for money they owe us to complete the work, and we hope they will not disappoint us. Examine the date opposite your name and send us what is due at once. This does not apply to those who owe for less than a year but we do mean those who are several years behind.

Bolton's Convention.

Four men met at the court house last Saturday in answer to a call by the "Corcoran-Jones" Republican Club, at Elkhart, Ky. One of the men was a stockholder and director of a bank, another is a prominent farmer, another is a teacher and a fourth is a member of the college, and the fourth is the Corcoran-Jones' local correspondent at this place. These four and some, met in court hall last Saturday at 10 o'clock p. m. after waiting for two or three minutes for the court to be cleared. The meeting was short and the chairman and secretary were selected. Those leaving but two to vote on any motion. The resolutions were declared unanimously adopted, aside from the four regular members, there were two Bryan and Sewell Democrats and two Republican ad-libs came there as spectators.

How is Your Nightingale?

Mr. L. Schwartz, a competent and well recommended optician is now making up office at Griffin & Bro's drug store. Glasses properly adjusted, and ground to order when needed. Eyes examined free of charge.

MURPHY, KY.

Aug. 17th. 1895. Prof. Doolan, president of Hardin College Institute, Elizabethtown, Ky., was here last week in the interest of the institute. He is a thorough, practical young man, of high talent and ability, and is well known in this community.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Duncan, Miss Katie Bell and Master Willie, left for their home in Louisville last Wednesday. Mrs. A. D. Duncan accompanied them to the city, where they will spend some days, the guest of her son and daughter.

Miss Katie, Annie, and Nettie Duncan visited friends and relatives at Elkhart and Rockport last week. Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Duncan, who have been on an extensive visit to his son in the Division county, returned home last week. He continues to exercise third party, and predicts a victory.

Mr. K. Griffin, of Clarksville, Texas, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Tichenor, during the past week. As the surface here is rather rocky and rolling, he was called for a ramble a part not so undulating. So in company with several friends of both sexes he took a tour over the miles of the rolling general way about level, but the surface is a very difficult and uphill climb of both sexes. Mr. R. Miller, of Owensboro, returned home last week. Mr. F. W. Miller, of Owensboro, returned home last week. Mr. F. W. Miller, of Owensboro, returned home last week.

Mr. W. E. Morton left Monday to be in his school near the county house. Death has visited our community and claimed two of our best girls. The first was the young wife of Mr. Oscar Ash by (now Miss Marie Belle) who died July 30 of that dreaded disease consumption. Rev. T. M. Morton, of Owensboro, preached the funeral at Equality, the 30th, after which the remains were interred in the church burying grounds. She was a consistent Christian and bore her sufferings patiently. She left a bright testimony that she had gone to rest. Those who knew her best were those who loved her best.

Miss Olla Frances Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. K. B. Allen, departed this life August 10th, aged 15 years. She was an obedient daughter, a devoted sister, a bright and cheerful schoolmate, and a true friend. She never failed to do her duty and always loved God's service.
